Flawless skin

Gorgeous glowing skin is essential on the red carpet. For an instant glow Hollywood's A-list swear by Intraceuticals Infusions, a skin treatment which leaves the skin looking noticeably brighter, firmer, and more flawless. Actress Eva Longoria says it's "a necessity before every major event". Singer Katy Perry also reveals Intraceuticals Infusions are the secret to her flawless skin, "I use Intraceuticals oxygen skin treatment to hydrate my skin and give me that fresh, well slept glowing look before any performance or appearance". Even male celebrities like jet-setting star Justin Timberlake have the Intraceuticals' oxygen infusion to replenish his skin and get him red-carpet ready after long-haul flights. The singer said, "It makes my skin look dope".
