LUST HAVES FRESHEN UP SKIN FOR THE SUMMER WITH FACE CLEANSERS

2 Reach for the stars ★★★★★

Cleansing Gel, £30.95, Intraceuticals (www.intraceuticals.com). This is apparently a cleanser to the stars and we can see why Madonna and pals can't get enough of the range. Made by a crack team of Aussie medical professionals in a top secret bunker somewhere in the outback (or something like that) this is the perfect product for anyone who likes their cleanser to look like a serum but lather up into a rich foam. It's soap-free and the salicylic acid sounds scary but left skin feeling as soft and oxygenated as if we'd used an exfoliator. Clever stuff.
